“At TScan we are striving to unleash the untapped potential of the human immune system to develop safe and effective therapies for patients with all types of cancer,” said Gavin MacBeath, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer. “I am extremely grateful to our mission-focused team who work relentlessly toward improving the lives of those impacted by cancer, and in doing so create an industry-leading culture that makes TScan a top place to work.”

“This is the second year in a row that we have received this recognition, an accomplishment that stands as a true testament to the hardworking, inclusive, employee-focused organization we are,” added Ann Hargraves, Senior Vice President of Human Resources. “We know that a company is only as strong and connected as the people in it. I’m proud of the team we’ve built and the noteworthy culture we’ve nurtured.”

The rankings in Top Places to Work are based on confidential survey information collected by Energage (formerly WorkplaceDynamics), an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention, from more than 137K individuals at 347 Massachusetts organizations.
